A Swindler taken on the Wing. Mr. T. Perrenoud, a watchmaker, employed in the fancy store of Mors. Voizot, on College street, hired a horse and buggy, a few days ago, of the Messrs. Hanmer, to take an airing. Not coming "up to time," and the country around having been that he had played them a "shabby trick," and did. municipal election. not intend to "come back s gain." His absence getting wind, it was soon ascertained that he had walked into the effections of others besides the Hanmers. Numbers of his Swiss friends owned up to having been done, in the way of loans, of spare tens, twenties, and even hundreds. A full thou- elected. sand, it is believed, he bagged in this way. Several gold watches, given him to repair, were ing been brought into requestion, he was arrested yesterday at Russellville, Ky., and in a "few days" will return to the bosom of his anxious friends.

Brutal Rape. An Irishman named PATRICK CALKIN was arrested in this city yesterday charged with having, March election. on Sunday morning last, committed a rape upon a little Irish girl, of fourteen summers. An investigation of the charge took place before 'Squire Rob | election. inson. The facts of the case are substantially as follows : The girl, who was employed from home, electionwas at her mother's residence on the north side of the river, beyond Buena Vista Ferry, Sunday, on a visit, and at about 11 o'clock her mother despatched her on an errand to a neighbor's. Having expressed a fear of losing her way, Calkin, who was present, being a boarder in the house, proffered his company, alleging that he was going to town nied by a little boy, started, and when they got to election a thickly wooded spot, Calkin asked the girl if she would not marry him; she replied she was too young to marry any one. He then took hold of her and she screamed; whereupon he siezed her by the throat, stiff d her cries, threw her upon the ground and committed a brutal rape. These facts
